Have Fun and They Will Come

By Dan Hammond

As I continue to travel around the District, I see a common theme in the clubs that I visit. Clubs that are having fun and celebrating each other's successes are the clubs that are more likely to make a difference in your communities and around the world. Within every club you find leading lights that do many different things, and recognizing and honoring them, and thanking them for their contributions, is something we all need to do. In reading these, and recognizing as well as thanking, we are helping to create a culture of fun. [more]
